Ryan Kim
rkim3@emich.edu

Summary

Hard-working programmer with a passion for crafting real-world solutions in professional software systems and applications. As an avid programmer, worked toward creating scripts to manage staff reports for Hope Clinic, a non-profit community center in Ypsilanti. Looking to use my computer science skills to create real-world solutions through my software.

Education

Eastern Michigan University , Ypsilanti, Michigan
Computer Science Major, Enrolled September 2018

Courses toward a Bachelor of Science Degree in Computer Science

GPA 4.0

Early College Alliance at Eastern Michigan University , Ypsilanti, Michigan
High School, Enrolled September 2017

High School Diploma anticipated in May 2021

GPA 4.0

Work Experience

Hope Clinic , Ypsilanti , Michigan
Volunteer Data Analyst, January 2019 - Present
- Validating data reports for volunteer professional service logs
- Preparing computer records for annual audits
- Writing Python scripts to automate excel tasks

The Robert E. Miller Group , Overland Park , Kansas
Computer Analyst/Contract, October 2018 - November 2018
- Modified JSON files to carry company colors
- Created templates for Power BI to match the company themes

Boy Scouts of America
Volunteer; Community Service, January 2015 - January 2019
- Grounds maintenance in public parks
- Fund raising for local animal shelter
- Car parking attendant for Ypsilanti Heritage Festival

Professional Skills

HTML5
CSS
JavaScript
C#
Java
Python

Certifications

Microsoft 70-480 Exam - Programming in HTML5 with JavaScript and CSS3

7/10/2019